St. Mary's Junior College • Raleigh North Carolina

Love can be seen and felt exercises. Here is the place where new loves are found and old loves continue to grow. Love shows itself in smiling faces and found embraces.

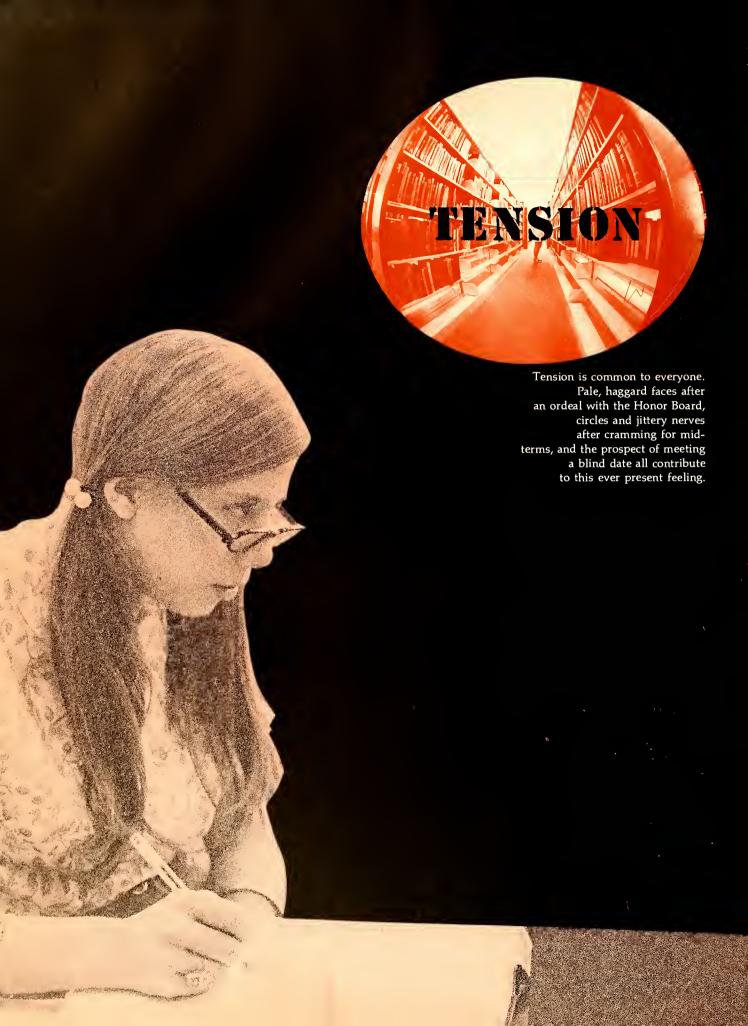

OP NS

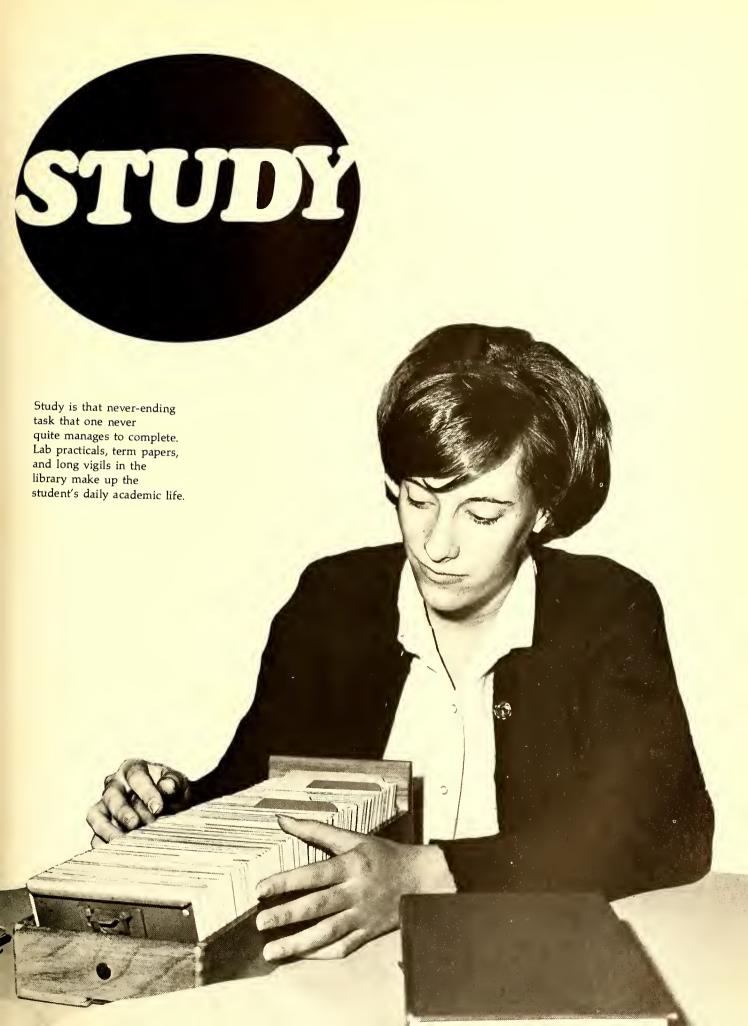

Dorms are the places where we can unwind after a hard day, play bridge, talk to friends, and sleep. They are places where new friendships are made and where girls learn to live together.

ACADEMICS

Dramatics comes alive when taught by Mrs. Stamey.

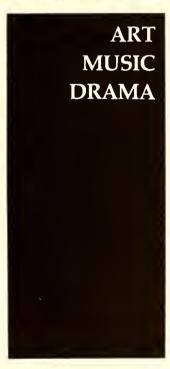

A contemplative Lucia Drury checks her finished product.

Giving a speech in front of the whole class is always a nerve-wracking experience.

Mr. Peery explains the flats of music to the student.

RELIGION

Mary Austin and Binnie Bartow enjoy chapel.

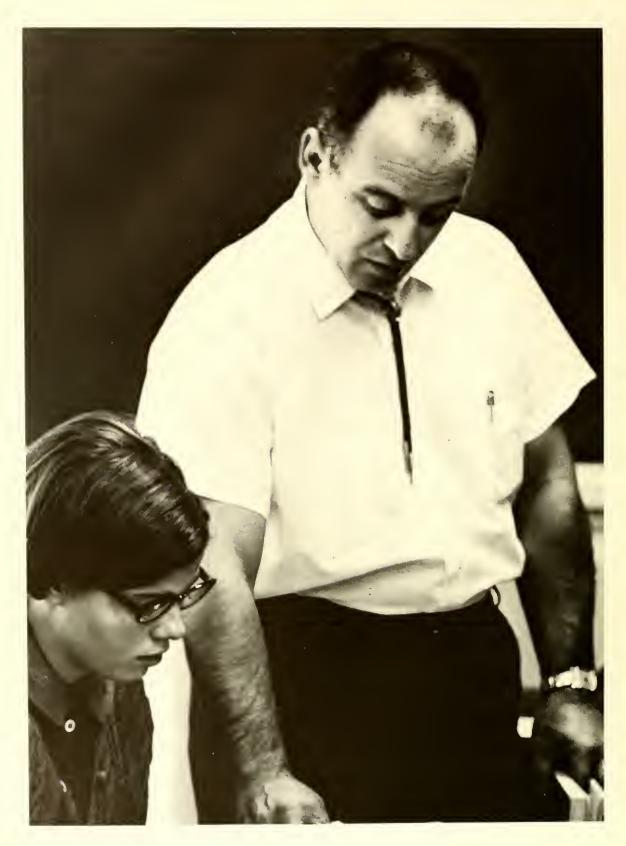

"Hear the echoes of the music . . ."

Bible isn't all Adam and Eve.

MATH

Thank goodness for blackboards!

It's not unusual for math students to look worried,

ENGLISH

Betsy Wharton operates the projector in English.

Marsh Pully listens and learns the Canterbury Tales.

Does anybody recognize this desk?

Does Mr. Serxner enjoy discussing grades?

PHYSICAL EDUCATION

Gym can be a time to relax.

Miss Duncan directs volleyball traffic.

Mrs. Bailey studies Gayle Cantrell's ballet form.

"Orchesis cut ups"

HISTORY

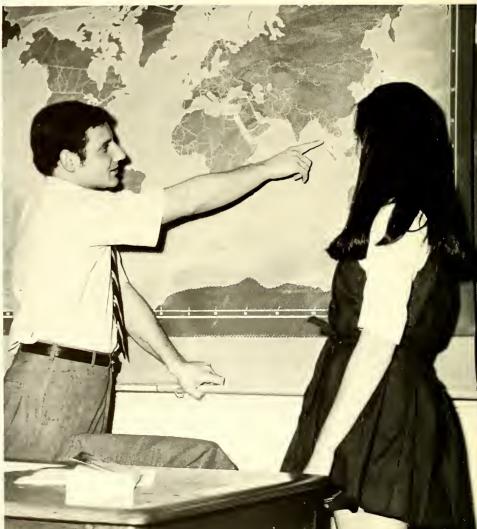

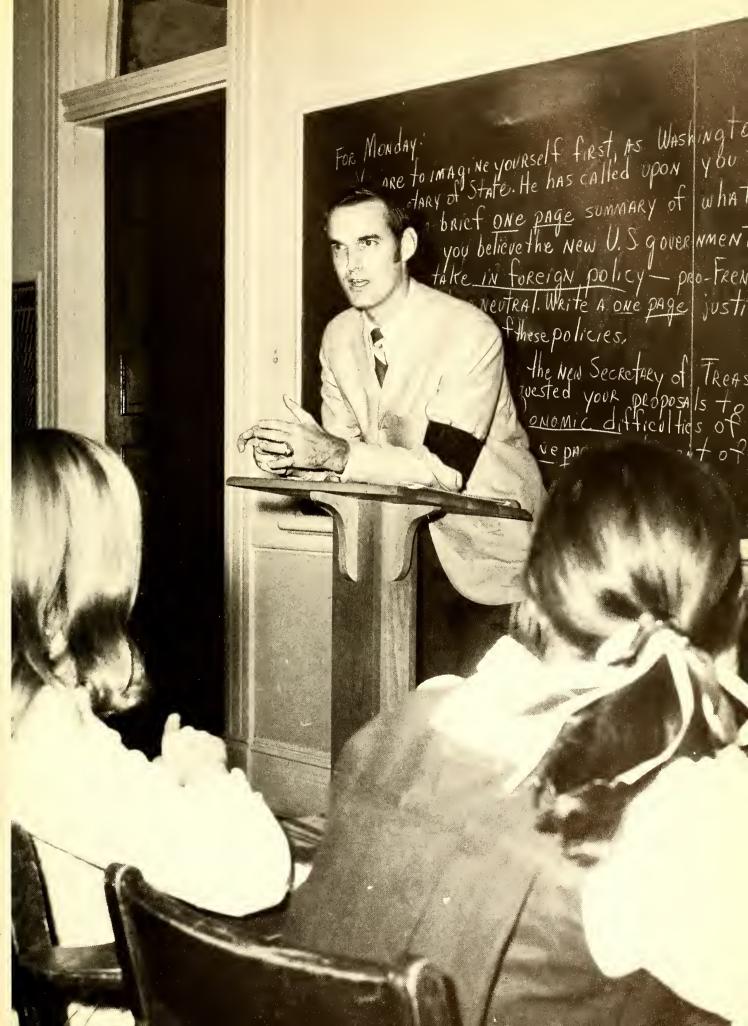

Right: Vietnam is always on our minds.

SCIENCE

For that burning sensation . . .

Anatomy can be fun!

Anna Robinson discovers some of life's secrets.

DNA's Key to

"Mr. King and company"

Study May!

Mr. Weiner's students get a kick out of the skeleton.

Mrs. Beam gladly gives change for a telephone call.

Mr. Brooker diligently plans the weekly meals.

Sherry Graham entertains at the Halloween party.

Nurse Smith gives Mary Vance a super pill.

ACTIVITIES

ORIENTATION

T C H R C C I B L E

Arthur Miller's The Crucible was presented to the faculty and students of St. Mary's as well as to the public on November 24 and 25, 1969. Our Mrs. Stamey directed the play, staged by the Dramatics

Club. As well as talent contributed by St. Mary's students and faculty (Mr. Lawrence), the play also included the acting of such well known players as Jimmie Thiem.

Emmy, Ann, Florence, and Collins make an adorable foursome!

HALLOWEEN

What if she hates apples???

Some people thought that clobbering the SGA officers was the most fun!

It's hard to have a good dance without males, but we tried.

All the kids (young and old) listen to our favorite Santa Claus at the Christmas party.

The Cold Cuts looked like Christmas Cuts!

November 14, 1969 was a very special day in the history of St. Mary's. The Rev. Frank Warren Pisani was inducted as the ninth head of our school. On that Friday every student had the St. Mary's family spirit as she watched an event which would bring progress and new opportunities.

Inauguration activities began with an outdoor luncheon.

Faculty members were reminded of their college days,

day for everyone who is part of St. Mary's . .

On the faces of two beloved presidents – feelings of love and devotion.

ORGANIZATIONS

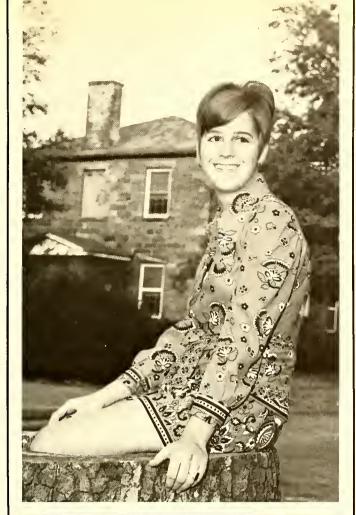

SGA

The SGA serves as a factor which unifies the St. Mary's student body. New students in particular look to the Student Government Association for guidance. Not only does the SGA have many administative duties, but they also have to do a lot of the dirty work, such as check for chapel and concert cutters.

The association strove for unity and progress during the 1969-70 year.

Kack Harrison, President

Patti Graves, Vice President

Penny Hicks, Chairman of Hall Council

Olivia Grimes, Secretary-Treasurer

Susan Dodd, President of Day Students

Julia Barfield, Secretary of Hall Council

Anna Burgwyn, Assistant Secretary of Hall Council

Library assistants: Ekky Foss, Melissa Ogle, Melissa Sanders. MUSE

One can do her own thing when she contributes to St. Mary's literary magazine, the Muse. In addition to the literature itself, another feature is the unusual art work. Editor Jane Upton and staff worked hard to create this year's several issues.

SELLES

The Belles is a traditional St. Mary's publication which each student looks forward to receiving. Dru Haley and her staff published an enlightening, gossip-filled, and exciting Belles newspaper twice each month during the '69-'70 year.

Business Manager Jane Wood and Joanne Wilkins assign

Assistant Editor Lucia Drury and Editor Mary Vance look for help!

Special Editors Scotty Uzzell, Jenni Smith, Fran Suthers, and Allison Davis schedule pictures.

A member of the Stagecoach staff realizes better than most people how hard it is to make ends meet. The 1969-70 staff has made a particular effort to move the yearbook into a contemporary form. New ideas and original poses have been stressed more than ever. The most important addition is the summer supplement which the students will receive in August.

It's ad collecting time of year.
